Hello Ms. Luise:

I am in receipt of your hand delivered package, thank you.

In reviewing your documents, I must make you aware that at a minimum, you have failed to produce all email communications and that you have failed to produce any text messages. There are several emails and texts that I am aware of which you have failed to disclose, including emails to or from your boslaw.net email address regarding the business of the MCFC, Inc.

I appreciate that you are claiming and perhaps attempting to provide “everything”, however these assertions remain unfulfilled. If you would like to provide any outstanding emails that have not been provided, I am happy to receive them.

In the meantime, I will review the remaining documents and verify what I know of/have versus what has been provided and will let you know if other disparities exist that I can identify.

Kindest Regards,
